

We expect that you...

- Will be open to seeing and thinking about mathematics in ways that may seem unfamiliar
- Will understand that people's experiences, ideas, and learning styles may be different from your own
- Will reflect on the work we do this week and how it impacts your work in your own classroom
- ★ It's also expected that you...
 - Come to all sessions on time
 - Come prepared for each session, having read/done homework
 - Participate
 - Take care of your needs
