Focus Questions (video)

1. What is the math that students are working on? What do they understand about addition?

2. What generalizations are students making? How are they describing and justifying their generalizations?

3. How does their cube model relate to the specific example of 23 + 2? How does the modeling go beyond the specific example?

4. What is the teacher's role in this discussion?